

Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to inform you that the ESTRO membership 2022 has now been launched. In this occasion, I would like to inform your department about the opportunities offered by the ESTRO institutional membership.

The Institutional membership is specially designed for radiation oncology departments seeking to support their oncology teams in their professional development. This model offers opportunities and valuable educational and networking tools at the best conditions.

By registering your team of professionals as ESTRO institutional members, you give them access to a large range of benefits, such as:

Conferences	Access to ESTRO annual congress webcasts
	Reduced registration fees for ESTRO congresses and courses
Education	Access to the ESTRO E-Library (including Guidelines and publications)
	Access to ESTRO course books
Journals	Access to Radiotherapy &amp; Oncology (Green Journal)
	Publication Fee Discount for Radiotherapy &amp; Oncology (Green Journal)
	Access and article processing fee discount for ctRO , phiRO and tipsRO ESTRO journals
	Discount on online subscription to AAPM Medical Physics
News &amp; network	Access to ESTRO newsletters
	Eligibility for ESTRO mentorship programme
Society	Eligibility for awards/grants
	Voting rights at ESTRO General Assembly
	Eligibility to be a member of the ESTRO Board of Directors

All details per membership category can be found on https://www.estro.org/ESTRO/media/ESTRO/Membership/2022/210929-Membership-Matrix-2022\_Individual.pdf

By becoming an institutional member, your institution has access to:

- Gradual discounts from 5% up to 25% on the total membership fee
- Free access as exhibitor at the ESTRO Communities Pavilion during the ESTRO annual conference
- Visibility through the ESTRO institutional members webpage
- Free online job postings on the ESTRO website
- ESTRO institutional member logo for publication use

For more details on the institutional membership, I invite you to visit our webpage on <https://www.estro.org/Membership/Collective-memberships/Institutional-membership>. Also, our membership team will be pleased to further inform you and answer your queries at membership@estro.org.

I am looking forward to our fruitful collaboration and a very committed year 2022.

Kind regards,

Ben Slotman, ESTRO President
